

Spruce Forest Trail

Difficulty: Easy
Distance: .25-mile loop (15 minutes roundtrip)
Access: Begins and ends at Denali Visitor Center
Highlights: Spruce forest
Elev. change: None
Grade: 0%
Width: 72 inches
Surface: Well-compacted gravel

Morino Trail

Difficulty: Easy
Distance: .40-mile loop (25 minutes roundtrip)
Access: Begins and ends at Denali Visitor Center
Highlights: Historic roadhouse site
Elev. change: None
Grade: 0-2%
Width: 48 inches
Surface: Well-compacted gravel

McKinley Station Trail

Difficulty: Moderate
Distance: 1.0 mile (60 minutes one way)
Access: Denali Visitor Center or Riley Creek Campground
Highlights: Historic home sites, RR trestle
Elev. change: 100 feet
Grade: 5% maximum
Width: 48 inches
Surface: Well-compacted gravel

Taiga Trail

Difficulty: Easy
Distance: 1.3-miles (45-60 minutes)
Access: Denali Visitor Center (trail ends at Horseshoe Lake Trailhead)
Highlights: Spruce and aspen forests, flowers in spring, berries in summer and fall
Elev. change: 75 feet (moderately steep short sections)
Grade: 15% maximum
Width: 24 inches
Surface: Gravel with open step across ditches

Horseshoe Lake Trail

Difficulty: Easy to moderately strenuous

Distance: 1.5 miles (1 1/2 hours roundtrip)

Access: Take Taiga Trail and join

Horseshoe Lake Trail at railroad tracks

Highlights: Spectacular views of Horseshoe Lake and Nenana River; wildlife sightings

Elev. change: 250 feet

Grade: 20% sections

Width: 60 inches

Surface: Native soils with roots, and rocks

Roadside Multi-Use Trail

Difficulty: Easy

Distance: 1.7 miles (45 minutes one way)

Access: Connects Denali Visitor Center to Horseshoe Lake Trailhead, Riley Creek
Campground, and the Parks Highway

Highlights: Skirts the forest's edge

Elev. change: 150 feet

Grade: 5% maximum

Width: 10 feet

Surface: Well-compacted gravel

Roadside Hiking Trail

Difficulty: Moderately strenuous

Distance: 1.8 miles (1 hour one way)

Access: Connects Denali Visitor Center to Park Headquarters and Sled Dog Kennels

Highlights: Aspen, paper birch, and spruce forests

Elev. change: 350 feet

Grade: 15% maximum

Width: 36 inches

Surface: Well-compacted gravel

Rock Creek Trail

Difficulty: Moderately strenuous

Distance: 2.3 miles (2 hours one way)

Access: Connects Denali Visitor Center to Park Headquarters and Sled Dog Kennels

Highlights: Beautiful stands of birch and spruce; views of Horseshoe Creek and Healy Ridge; quiet and solitude

Elev. change: 400 feet

Grade: 15%

Width: 30 inches

Surface: Well-compacted gravel

Meadow View Trail

Difficulty: Easy

Distance: .25 miles (20 minutes one way)

Access: Rock Creek Trail to Roadside Path

Highlights: View of meadow and mountains

Elev. change: None

Grade: 0%

Width: 30 inches

Surface: Well-compacted gravel

Mount Healy Overlook Trail

Difficulty: Strenuous

Distance: 2.2 miles one way (3-4 hours roundtrip)

Highlights: Dramatic views of the park entrance area, the Nenana River Valley, and alpine ridges

Access: Take Taiga Trail for 0.3 miles then look for Mount Healy Trailhead

Elev. change: 1,700 feet (very steep sections)

Grade: 25% with short sections that are steeper

Width: 24 inches

Surface: Native soils with rocks and roots

Canyon Bike Trail

Difficulty: Easy

Distance: XX miles

Access: Canyon developed area to the north; park road to the south

Highlights: TBD

Elev. change: XXX feet

Grade: 5% maximum

Width: 10 feet

Surface: Asphalt

Jonesville Trail

Difficulty: Easy
Distance: .4 miles
Access: Canyon Bike Trail and Denali Bike Path
Highlights: Spruce Forest
Elevation Change: 80 feet
Grade: 8% maximum
Width: 30"
Surface: Gravel

Savage River

Difficulty: Easy
Distance: 2 miles
Access: Mile 15 parking lots
Highlight: River Bar
Elevation Change: 100 feet
Grade:
Width: 30 inches
Surface: Gravel

Savage Cabin Interpretive Trail

Difficulty: Easy
Distance: .3 miles
Access: Mile 13
Highlight: Historic Cabin
Elevation Change: 30 feet
Grade: Level
Surface: Gravel

McKinley Bar

Difficulty: Moderate
Distance: 4.5 miles roundtrip
Access: Wonder Lake Campground Road
Highlight: Tundra and Spruce Forest, McKinley River
Elevation Gain: 100 feet
Grade: Rolling
Surface: Gravel, soil